• Cy-Hawk™ (Co-owned by The University of Iowa & Iowa State University. Use requires approval from both schools.)

Note: A ® should be used when applying the above verbiage to apparel including headwear and footwear. When applying to products other than apparel, use the ™ notice. Exception is to use ® after Cyclones on any flag, pennant or banner product.

Verbiage that always requires a TM symbol:
State™
Cy™ Cyclone™
Clone(s)™
VEISHEA™
Jack Trice Stadium™
Clone Cone™

Note: Any reference to a coach is subject to review by the Trademark Licensing Office and may require a ™ notice depending on the use.
Note: Hashtags and email addresses do not require ™ notices.
Campanile Mark

- A ™ should be applied when using the Campanile on all products.
- This version of the mark must be used in depicting the Campanile.
- Generic versions of the mark are not allowed.

Official University Skyline

- This skyline was created to capture the most notable and iconic buildings on campus. The design includes the Student Innovation Center, Beardshear Hall, The Campanile, The Memorial Union, CY Stephens, and Jack Trice Stadium. If creating a skyline design, please use one of these depictions.
- This version of the mark must be used in depicting the Campanile.
- Generic versions of the mark are not allowed.
University Seals

- Use of the University Seal is restricted to official documents signed by the University President, and selected consumer products including sweatshirts and t-shirts in the soft-goods line and on a case by case basis for up-scale gift type items. Designs containing the seal are limited to traditional designs. The seal must appear alone or with the words “Iowa State”, “Iowa State University”, “Iowa State Alumni”, or “Iowa State University Alumni”. No other words, symbols or designs may appear with or around the seal; the Office of University Marketing must approve all other uses.
- A ® should be used when applying the University Seals to apparel including headwear and footwear. When applying to products other than apparel, use the ™ notice.

Reiman Gardens Mark

- When using the Reiman Gardens mark (the words Reiman Gardens attached to the Official University Wordmark), design elements should not invade the mark in any way. Design elements should be kept a distance in any direction from the mark of half of the height of the letter “I” in Reiman. Design elements may “float” above, below or to either side but not touch or appear to be attached to the mark itself.
- Creative type styles and color may replace either the verbiage Reiman Gardens or Iowa State University for the use on retail product only and are reviewed on a case-by-case basis. The words Reiman Gardens and Iowa State University should remain close enough in proximity that they appear to be attached.
- The Reiman Gardens mark (the words Reiman Gardens attached to the Official University Wordmark), must be utilized for Reiman Gardens staffwear.
- When using the Reiman Gardens mark (the words Reiman Gardens attached to the Official University Wordmark) for internal use purposes, the required color that must be applied to the entire mark is PMS 342 green. Alternative colors, depending on the product color, are white or black and will be allowed on a case-by-case basis. However, black may not be used on a yellow or gold product.

NOTE: The marks of Iowa State University are controlled under a licensing program administered by Collegiate Licensing Company. Any use of these marks will require written approval from CLC.
Usage Guidelines

Verbiage Guidelines:
A ™ should be used when applying the verbiage marks to apparel including headwear and footwear. When applying verbiage to products other than apparel use the TM designation. Exceptions: A ® should be used when applying the word "Cyclones" to flags and banners as well as apparel. For "Cy," "Cyclone," "Clone," "Cyclone Nation," "State," "VEISHEA," "Jack Trice Stadium," "Hilton," "Hilton Coliseum," "Hilton South," "Hilton Magic," a TM notice should be used on all products.

General Note:
- No enhancements may be done leaving a black and gold impression, whether in the product color or imprint.
- When referring to the date the university was established, never use “since” 1858.
- If using coordinates for the university, please use 42.02° N, 93.64° W.

Guidelines for different families of Iowa State marks are shown below. Marks from different families should not be mixed. For example, the current Athletics Marks cannot be used with Vintage Marks.

Athletics Marks:
A ® should be used on all Athletics marks when applying to apparel including headwear and footwear. This includes I State, Nickname, all mascot head graphics, Full Body Mascot, and athletics "Iowa State" and "Cyclones" word marks. When applying to other products, use the TM notice.

- A ® should be used when applying the "Cyclones" word marks to flags and banners. All other products, except apparel and headwear as noted above, require the TM notice.
- Only one, two and three-color versions of the Primary I State Athletics Mark should be used for embroidery. The full color version may not be used.
- The white and gold outlines for the full body Mascot Graphic are only optional when placing this mark on product that matches PMS 202. For any other product color, do not use these outlines.
- The Athletics marks cannot be altered in any way including form, proportion, color, or integrity.
- A mark may be incorporated into a design as long as the integrity of the mark is not altered and the mark is not dominated by the marks of others.
- The color versions of the Athletics marks must stay as they are shown; no reversing or color changing is permitted.
- All design details must distinctly appear on the Athletics marks.
- When changing the dimensions of the mark by size, the proportions must be maintained and all details must be clean, crisp and in registration. The marks cannot be altered in form, proportion, color or integrity.
- The beveled style used in “STATE” should not be mimicked elsewhere in a design except in provided wordmarks.
- When using a football helmet in a design, the helmet's facemask must match what is worn on the field (ex. red helmet has red facemask).
- Numbers on replica or authentic jerseys must be the year (ex. fall of 2022 would be #22 on jersey.)
- The Athletics marks must not be overlapped by other design elements.
- The Athletics marks may be embossed, however, the depth of the emboss must allow the mark to be legible.
- The black and white line art version of the mark must be used for the emboss.
- Any deviation to these design standards will be considered on an individual case by case basis by Trademark Licensing.

Official University Wordmarks:
A ® should be used when applying the Official University Wordmark to apparel including headwear and footwear. When applying to products other than apparel, use the TM notice.

- The color versions of the Official University Wordmark must stay as they are shown; no reversing or color changing is permitted.

Campanile Mark:
A TM should be applied when using the Campanile on all products.

University Seal:
Use of the University seal is restricted to official documents signed by the University President, and selected consumer products including sweatshirts and t-shirts in the soft-goods line and on a case by case basis for up-scale gift type items. Designs containing the seal are limited to traditional designs. The seal must appear alone or with the words "Iowa State," "Iowa State University," "Iowa State Alumni," or "Iowa State University Alumni". No other words, symbols or designs may appear with or around the seal; the Office of University Marketing must approve all other uses.

- A ® should be used when applying the University Seals to apparel including headwear and footwear. When applying to products other than apparel, use the TM notice.
